

SES-imagotag is looking for new talents!

SES-imagotag is the leader in Electronic Shelf Label market with an installed basis of about 10,000 stores in 54 countries.

Our innovation ability, the potential of our market and the skills of our employees allow SES-imagotag to be a high value-added company.

With 6 subsidiaries all around the world, SES-imagotag has a significant international dimension.

We are committed to develop your personal and professional skills, in order to take up together the challenges of this market and to pursue the growth of our activity.

To retain its market leading position, SES-imagotag chooses to strengthen several departments:

- Human resources,
- Administrative and Finance Division,
- Marketing,
- Communication, etc.

Personal characteristics:

Graduated from a Business School or the University (Master's Degree), you have a successful first professional experience. You want to work in a dynamic, international and innovative company, in the field of new technologies. Reliable, organized and independent, you have the ability to adapt quickly to your environment.

You are fluent in French and English. These positions are based in Nanterre.